

FORMAL WRITTEN WARNINGReason: Repeat Failure to Attend Scheduled Client Appointment and Failure to Communicate

Date	8 September 2026
Employee	Motlatsi Modise
Employer	D'Vine Renewal
Warning Type	Formal Written Warning

Dear Motlatsi,

This letter serves as a formal written warning regarding your failure to attend a client appointment scheduled for 7 September 2026 and your failure to communicate the situation to management before the client's arrival.

You had communicated directly with the client regarding an appointment for her lash treatment on 7 September 2026. The client arrived at the salon expecting to receive the treatment, but you were not present to perform the service and management had not been informed beforehand that you would not be attending.

After the incident, you advised management that you believed the client had not confirmed the appointment. However, because you had communicated the proposed appointment date to the client and you were the therapist responsible for the booking, it was your responsibility to follow up with the client, confirm the booking status, and ensure that management was kept informed. If there was any uncertainty about the appointment, this needed to be resolved before simply not attending.

You also indicated that you experienced a transport issue. Regardless of the reason, any difficulty that may prevent you from attending work or a scheduled client appointment must be communicated to management as soon as possible and before the client arrives wherever reasonably possible.

Previous warnings and repeat conduct: This is not the first incident of this nature. Management has previously addressed similar conduct with you verbally in a face-to-face discussion and by WhatsApp. Despite those prior warnings and discussions, a similar incident occurred again on 7 September 2026.

The consequence was that the client arrived at the salon without the therapist who had arranged to attend to her. Management then had to explain the situation and apologise to the client. This placed the business in an unprofessional position and created a risk to the client's trust in D'Vine Renewal.

Required immediate improvement

- Confirm all client appointments and follow up where confirmation is outstanding.
- Communicate all appointment arrangements clearly and promptly with management
- Inform management immediately if you are unable to attend work or a client appointment.
- Never leave a client expecting a treatment without ensuring that management is aware of the arrangement and any changes.
- Take responsibility for resolving uncertainty or problems that may affect a client appointment before the appointment time.
- Do not schedule client appointments on your off days unless you are able to commit to attending the appointment and the arrangement has been clearly communicated to management.
- Maintain the standard of reliability, communication and professionalism expected when dealing with clients.

D'VINE RENEWAL

This warning is a formal indication that the conduct described above is unacceptable. Immediate and sustained improvement is required. Any further similar incident, failure to communicate, failure to attend a scheduled client appointment, or related misconduct may result in further disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, in accordance with the company's disciplinary procedures.

The business retains the client communications and your communications acknowledging this incident and previous similar incidents as supporting records of the matter.
